

MADISON CAMERON

STUDENT WELLNESS THROUGH MEANINGFUL CONNECTIONS

Understanding. Connecting. Empowering.

MADISON CAMERON
Youth Specialist

Madison Cameron is a Youth Specialist with the Center for Trauma Informed Practices (CTIP). She brings experience in youth development, trauma-informed practice and community outreach. She is a former university basketball athlete who played in Michigan and Georgia.

Madison empowers audiences with practical strategies that make a lasting impact on youth, parents and educators.

SCHOOL PRESENTATION TOUR

NOVEMBER 23
STUDENT SESSIONS

- 9:30 AM – Sturgis Composite School
- 11:00 AM – Canora Composite School
- 1:00 PM – MC Knoll–St. Michael's Schools

NOVEMBER 24
STUDENT SESSIONS

- 9:15 AM – Churchbridge Public School
- 11:00 AM – Esterhazy High School
- 1:20 PM – Melville Comprehensive School

NOVEMBER 24
PARENTS & CAREGIVERS

7:00 PM – ~~ONLINE SESSION TO OCCUR~~

An evening conversation about youth social-media experiences, online safety, healthy versus harmful device use, algorithms, and strengthening relationships.

DECEMBER 8
STUDENT SESSIONS

- 9:30 AM – Yorkton Regional High School
- 11:00 AM – Sacred Heart High School

For students, parents and caregivers, and educators.
Stronger connections. Healthier choices. More confidence.

Good Spirit School Division | Christ The Teacher Catholic Schools | Elias Giannoulis Memorial Hockey Tournament for Mental Health | CTSAP